

Reagan Carey is the Director of The Autism Program at CTF IL. Reagan has 25 years in supporting people with disabilities and autism spectrum disorder. She holds a Master's of Science in psychology and is a Board Certified Behavior Analyst. Reagan is also a parent of a transition aged youth diagnosed with autism. She is a graduate of the Partners in Policymaking class funded through the Illinois Council of Developmental Disabilities (ICDD) and had the opportunity to oversee a portion of the Southern Illinois Transition Project that focused on person centered planning and resources to youth ages 14-27 years and their families through the ICDD.

"Person Driven Planning with Your Child" will discuss definition of person centered planning and the importance of having the child not only involved, but "driving" the process. Families will be given examples of this process and tips to include people with varying abilities and support needs.
